The Accelerator Partnership Pilot Program (A3P)

The Canada Media Fund's mandate includes encouraging the creation of leading-edge, non-linear projects that bring together high-quality creative content with newly developed digital technologies, and encouraging the success of these projects. As such, the CMF is renewing its Accelerator Partnership Pilot Program (A3P) for the 2015-2016 fiscal year. This pilot program is designed to provide producers of digital media projects funded through CMF's Experimental Stream with better access to mentorship, markets and capital for their CMF-funded projects. In this program, the CMF will work with business accelerators to help connect them with previous recipients of development or production funding in the CMF's Experimental Stream.

A business accelerator, also called a seed accelerator, is an organization that selects small businesses or teams – either at early stages of their development or when they are looking to refine their project – and accelerates their market roll-out and company growth. Accelerators may provide funding, mentoring and training, often in exchange for equity. Accelerators will select the recipients that they wish to work with based on their normal selection criteria, subject to these Guidelines. Once an accelerator has selected a recipient, the CMF will provide acceleration program funding for the recipient's CMF-funded project, up to $30,000. This amount will be paid directly to the recipient by the CMF. Funding in the A3P will be in the form of a non-recoupable contribution, and will be awarded on a first come first served basis. The recipient and accelerator will enter into an agreement which will outline the details of the acceleration program for the recipient's CMF-funded project, including the provision of mentorship and training by the accelerator, in exchange for which the accelerator may take an equity position in the recipient's company.

Eligible Costs in the A3P include, but are not limited to, expenses related to the participation in one of the accelerator programs (consultation fees, mentorship activities, wages, marketing, travel and accommodations). They may include costs described in section 2.3.2 of the 2015-2016 Experimental Stream Guidelines. However, the CMF will not fund the same costs twice – i.e. costs included in the development/production budget funded through the Experimental Stream are not eligible for funding in the A3P. All expenses must be actual, reasonable and verifiable.

The following is a list of approved A3P business accelerators:
