Project Title: _____ (the "Project")

Applicant Company: _____ (the "Applicant")

As stated in the CMF's Narrative Positioning Policy, the CMF is committed to encouraging content creation that is both representative and accountable to all individuals and communities. Projects with key storylines, main characters or subject matter related to Sovereignty- and Equity- Seeking Communities should only be made by individuals who are well-positioned to tell the story.

Further to the specific criteria listed in the Evaluation Grid of the Program Guidelines, the Project will be evaluated on the following.

Please explain how the Applicant and the key creative and production teams are well-positioned to create this Project:

- You may highlight any relevant information such as relationship to the content (including key storylines, main characters or subject matter), lived experience with the content, or state the Applicant's motivation in producing this content. Please include relevant details on WHO forms the key production and creative teams making the content and their connection or positioning to the content.
If the Project includes or reflects key storylines, main characters or subject matter related to one or more Sovereignty- and/or Equity- Seeking Communities, please outline the measures that the Applicant and the key production and creative teams have and/or will undertake to create this content responsibly, thoughtfully and without harm.
Suggested considerations may include HOW you are and/or will undertake measures regarding:
Community relations
Production, creative process and/or experience (for cast, crew, personnel)
Accessibility, accommodation and/or support (e.g. integrated described video, creative captioning, etc.)
Policies, stewardship, accountability and/or communication
Other relevant examples, models and/or references
